

National Trust for
Historic Preservation®

Grants Now Available: African American Cultural Heritage Action Fund

Submit your Letters of Intent by January 31, 2018 for grants ranging from $50,000 to $150,000. If you or someone you know, has a historic place such as a site, museum, or landscape representing African American cultural heritage, you'll want to learn more about this program just launched by the National Trust for Historic Preservation. From capital projects to organizational capacity building, there are many ways that you can put this funding to use within your community. For full fund details, including the online form to submit your Letter of Intent, visit Forum.SavingPlaces.org/aachactionfund.

Grants Now Available: African American Cultural Heritage Action Fund

The African-American Cultural Heritage Action Fund is a new initiative of the National Trust for Historic Preservation providing grants in the range from $50,000 to $150,000. These grants are designed to advance ongoing preservation activities for historic places such as sites, museums, and landscape projects representing African-American cultural heritage through grants to nonprofit organizations and government agencies. The Action Fund supports projects focused on African-American cultural heritage, and can include: Capital Projects, Organizational Capacity Building, Project Planning, and Programming and Interpretation. You can read more about eligible activities and expenses, grant conditions, and other information on the program by visiting Forum.SavingPlaces.org/aachactionfund.

There is a two-step process to receive a grant from the African-American Cultural Heritage Action Fund. The first step, a Letter of Intent (LOI), must be submitted by Tuesday, January 31, 2018 at 11:59 local time, through our online grants portal. If the LOI is accepted, a full application will be requested of the applicant. Grant awards will be announced in May 2018.

National Trust funding is available exclusively to nonprofits and government agencies, and any applicants who are invited to submit a full application will be required to also be Forum members of the National Trust for Historic Preservation at the Organizational level. The National Trust has many grant programs that may be of interest to you. You can read more about other funding opportunities on our website. If you have any additional questions, please feel free to email the National Trust Grants Department at grants@savingplaces.org.

- National Trust for Historic Preservation : The African-American Cultural Heritage Action Fund grant program from the National Trust for Historic Preservation is designed to advance ongoing preservation activities for historic places such as sites, museums, and landscapes representing African American cultural heritage. Submit your Letter of Intent by Jan. 31. For full fund details, including the online form to submit your letter of intent, visit Forum.SavingPlaces.org/aachactionfund.
- If you or someone you know, has a historic place such as a site, museum, or landscape representing African American cultural heritage, you'll want to learn more about the National Trust for Historic Preservation's African-American Cultural Heritage Action Fund. From capital projects to organizational capacity building, there are many ways that you can put this funding to use within your community. Forum.SavingPlaces.org/aachactionfund.